PEOPLE'S MASS STATE CONVENTION! At Madison, Wisconsin, Thursday, July 13.

All men opposed to the Repeal of the Missouri Com-romise, the Extension of Slavery, and the Rule of the Slave Power, are invited to meet at Madison, Thursday, July 13, to take such measures as may be deemed necessary to provent the future encroachments of the Slave Power, to repeal all Compromises in fa-vor of Slavery, and to establish the principle of Free-dom as the rule of the State and National Governments. The time has come for the union of all Free Men for the sake of Freedom. There is but one alternative. We must unite and be free, or divide and be enslaved, by the prætorian bands of the Slaveholders and their Nebraska allies.

Kossuth's Muskets, powder, and balls, cannot make Hungary free; but the Chain spoken of in the 20th chapter of Revelations, is ready, to bind, in this age, the Dragon, as well as also Monarchs, who have received from him the power to tyrannize and bru-talize the people. At this binding, people will arise to a new life, and they will also draw their deceased friends into the first Resurrection: Rev. xx. 6.

the directions have been strictly followed and persevered in. It is now given to the public with the full and prove itself, upon fair trial, an infallible Sick

It is safe and pleasant to the taste, it brings immediate relief, and all who test its curative virtues rejoice in the remova of pain, and marvel at its power

The following is from D. C. Baker, Esq., Mayor o.
Lynn, and President of the Howard Banking Company, Boston:

DEAR SIR: A member of my family—a daughter, ten years of age—was afflicted with the sick headache, and we tried various remedies without success. When, however, you administered to her your "Headache Powders," we found them to be very beneficial, and, in fact, restored her to health.

I should, without hesitation, recommend them to those afflicted; and I beg to assure you, that I fully ppreciate their value. Respectfully yours, LYNN, August 6, 1853. E. P. Eastman. MY DEAR SIR: I avail myself of this opportunity MY DEAR Sig: I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my high appreciation of the efficiency and value of your Sick Headache Remedy. I have been afflicted, eince my childhood, with very severe turns of sick headache, and have tried various remedies which have been prescribed, but found no considerable relief until I tried your remedy, which, I am happy to say, has almost entirely cared me. Several of my neighbors and friends have tried your medicine, and in every instance it has entirely relieved or greatly mollified the disease.

Faithfully yours,

We abound in magazines and newspapers, suited to the wants and instes of all classes, yet the thirst for mental recreation and intelligence, which is one of the characteristics of our people, encourages us in the belie? that another well-conducted publication will be amply sustained.

Competition, which has been called "the life of trade," is now such in the periodical line, that, by the ordinary mode, it is a hazardous undertaking to the publisher to attempt, even with a large capital, to establish a magasine or paper. Not unfrequently, thousands of dollars are expended before it is made to yield a profit; and it has become a settled principle, that subscribers must be paid for, in one way or another. Periodicals are remunerative only when they have a large circulation, and Premiums are commonly given to increase subscription lists.

We design to furnish a handsomely-printed, hightoned, witty, entertaining, and instructive Quarto, (a suitable form for binding,) which in one year will comprise a large amount of useful information, and as a reflex of the times and a record of current events will be found worthy of preservation. Intending it to be, most emphatically, a paper for the propie, we shall advocate their rights, their interests, their welfare; our motto being "the greatest good to the largest number." The yearly subscription has been fixed at one dollar, or five copies for four dollars, twenty-five copies for twenty dollars—a!l to one address.

Gratuities, or premiums, smounting in the aggregate to twenty-five thousand dollars, will be returned to the first fifty thousand subscribers, viz:

Who Seek their Supplies in our Market.

ONE PRICE ONLY. We are now in our NEW STORE, which was creeted expressly for us. We think it the most comfortable and best lighted storeroom in the city; and with increased room, facilities, and experience, deemed quite ample, we shall deal largely in FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS, of every style, all of the best qualities, and for which we shall have one price only.

We shall sell cheaper than we ever have done; and in having one price only (which, in our opinion, is the only fair and equitable way of doing business) we shall maintain our self-respect, which is above all price or success. Moreover, we expect to retain all the trade of those prompt customers who have made their purchases of us for some years past, and doubtless we shall have a large accession of new customers, who prefer to buy where one fair price only is asked.

We feel that our simple word is requisite only to satisfy our former customers that the one price system is the correct one, and to their advantage; and we do not hesitate to assert our belief that all candid and intelligent persons will, after an impartial examination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price store the preference. Those who are not judges of goods cannot fail to be impressed at once with the manifold and vast advantages to the purchaser resulting from the adoption in good faith of the one price system, it necessarily insures low prices to the purchaser, for it becomes absolutely necessary to meet at the start all competition that can be offered in of every style, all of the best qualities, and for which

Our scale of prices will be so low, and the profits so small, that we cannot and will not soil but for the rash, or to customers who pay promptly. For those who purchase very largely, or to sell again, reduc-

PERRY & BROTHER, "Central Stores,"

Jan. 2-d (Op. Centre Market,) Washington City THE CONFLICT OF AGES! BY DR. EDWARD BRECHER.

This Remarkable Work has reached its Fifth Edition, in the brief space of Four Months! A success unprecedented in Theological Pub-

A success unprecedented in Theological Publications!

A N impression has already been produced by this masterly treatise, the most profound, wide reaching, and permanent.

It is perfeatly manifest to all competent observers, that we are upon the eve of a theological discussion, the most comprehensive, radical, and portentous, the world has ever seen. To this discussion this book leads the way, with a momentum irresistible. There is not a question is Theology which is not destined to come up for a new and thorough settlement in the light of this final development.

All those who have Theological doubts and difficulties should examine the solution this work affords. Those who have no doubts, but who wish to study the history of opinions in the past, and to keep pace with the developments of opinion in the future, will grievously err if they neglect to make themselves familiar with this book. It contains the seeds of the thinkings and debatings of the next hundred years. The reception of this work by the The-logical press of the country, has been significant. Equally declining to accept his conclusion, they do it on opposite and contradictory grounds. One half of the Theological press endorses the major Premise of the argument, and denies the minor. The other half endorse the minor, and denies the major. And as they are probably both right in their positive element, and wrong in their negative, the work has received a Virtual Endorsement of the most powerful kind.

As regards the ability of the work, and its claims on the attention of all, the following extracts may suffice:

From the Princeton Repeatory—Old School Orthodox.

From the Princeton Repertory—Old School Orthodox.

It is characterized by great ability, by an earnest spirit, by frankness, candor, and courtesy. It has a special interest for us. We hall. It AS AN ALLY. The author shuts his readers up to the choice between Orthodoxy and the doctrine of Pre-Existence.

From the Universalist Quarterly and General Review, Jan., 1854.

We have the novel spectacle of a man clinging with a masterly grasp to all the fundamentals of Orthodoxy, * * yet dealing it a blow teneath which it reels.

It would be difficult to find within the limits of a hundred pages any treatise or essay that can compare in importance with this analysis (B. iv) of Orthodox doctrines. Dr. Beecher has struck upon the right principle in his theory of typical interpretation, in the fifth of Romans.

New York, July 30, 1853.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we have examined the "Avery Sewing Machine," and cheerfully recommend it for its simplicity, durability, and especially for the peculiar stitch made by it. The stitch is original, and in appearance is like the most perfect and handsome "back-stitching." We have thoroughly tested the strength of the sewing, and are satisfied that the stitch of this machine makes a stronger and firmer seem than can be made by hand. We take pleasure in recommending this Machine to our friends, and to tailors, seamstresses, and families generally, throughout the country.

To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the card of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of, or the number of corns on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort.

Wisdom shall bone down to it, and the great of the cert's shall kneel before it."

NEVER could this be said with more truth, than it now applies to this remedy for affections of the throat and lungs. The exalted in learning and power acknowledge its supremacy, while both the little and the great can feel its benefits. The liberalminded among those skilled to cure, are free to own its mastery over distempers which have balled their art. Those of exalted stations are not ashamed to testify to its virtues, but deem it a duty and a pleas-their suffering fellow men.

[Translation.] VERMILLIONVILLE, La., April, 1853.

I have of late made frequent use of your Cherry Pectoral in my practice, and am happy to inform you that in no case yet has it failed me. I have made some signal cures of Laryngitis and Bronchitis with it, and have completely cured one case of Asthma, which had withstood every other medicine I could applicate.
